CLAIM JUMPER RESTAURANTS INTRODUCES FALL FEATURES
Restaurant chain introduces limited time menu items at reduced prices

IRVINE, Calif., Sept. 29, 2009 – Claim Jumper Restaurants, a casual dining restaurant chain with a family-friendly atmosphere and a modern twist on classic American cuisine, introduced fall menu items at reduced prices available for a limited time.

Claim Jumper is promoting four Giant Stuffed Bakers at $9.95 featuring 24 ounce Idaho baked potatoes, including a Steak & Black Bean Chili Stuffed Baker made with homemade top sirloin and black bean chili, fresh avocado, jack & cheddar cheese, diced tomatoes, chopped red onions and sour cream. The second introduction, a Parmesan Crusted Chicken Stuffed Baker, a combination of an American classic and Italian favorite, filled with Italian chicken breast, mozzarella, topped with fresh marinara sauce and will be available for a limited time.

“Providing quality products to our loyal guests at palatable prices is important to Claim Jumper,” said Julie Charvat, vice president of marketing for Claim Jumper. “We strive to deliver unique, cravable dishes at every day value pricing.”

In addition to the new items, Claim Jumper is featuring their signature Blackened Chicken Stuffed Baker with fresh seasonal vegetables and creamy homemade alfredo sauce as well as a vegetarian version with fresh roasted salsa at $8.95.

Now through November 16, 2009, Claim Jumper Stuffed Bakers are available for $9.95 each for dine-in, take-out orders, curbside pick-up and online at www.claimjumper.com. For additional information, call 800.949.4538 or visit www.claimjumper.com.
